

Do not add LPFM stations to your broadcasting line up. This could disrupt K-LOVE which is a station that promotes wholesome values and family programming that is needed in every community. I listen at home and in my car and would not switch to any other station. K-LOVE needs priority over the LPFM stations.